The Championship is for teams of up to three competitors from each country and will be held under Danish Kennel Club rules, which are very similar to Kennel Club rules except that, as in all FCI events, only registered pedigree dogs are eligible. Both Team and Individual Championship titles will be awarded in Freestyle and in Heelwork to Music.

Kennel Club Communications Director, Caroline Kisko commented: "This country was among the first to develop Heelwork to Music and Freestyle as a competitive sport and it is exciting to see Team GB competing against the world's best in this first World Championship event. Our congratulations and best wishes go with the Team GB members."
